Work At Home Vintage Experts

A sample of insurance carrier positions

Top talent. Affordable price. Exceptional results.

WAHVE provides remote support to your firm at a fraction of the cost for a full-time employee. We locate the best fit for your insurance firm's needs by drawing from a database of candidates who possess a wealth of experience – retiring insurance professionals.

We match our wahves to your business requirements. You get qualified, skilled industry veterans that can work full-time or part-time. We eliminate the guesswork and the time-consuming hiring process. You only see proven professionals who are ready to work for you, for the long term, while making your business that much more successful.
