SaaS Software Development and Delivery Leader Bob Juracka joins Work At Home Vintage Experts in the VP of Sales role

LAS VEGAS (January 26, 2022): Bob Juracka, a recognized leader in the Software-as-a-Service (SaaS) development and delivery, has joined Work At Home Vintage Experts (WAHVE) and Brainwahve as Vice President of Sales.

Bob brings over 20 years of expertise in driving delivery of custom business solutions for the insurance industry, having served as co-founder and Executive VP of Business Development for XDimensional Technologies. Prior to that, he spent 10 years of his career at Applied Systems as EVP of Sales, heading up agency management software sales and implementation efforts.

WAHVE, established in 2010, is an innovative contract talent solution that matches experienced retired or retiring career professionals with a company's talent needs. Brainwahve is a comprehensive cloud-based platform that organizes and qualifies applicants for companies, ensuring better hires and increasing diversity while decreasing turnover.

"Bob's background adds the depth and expertise needed to deliver our cloud-based solution that will help hiring managers significantly reduce the time to hire and improve their results," says Sharon Emek, Ph. D, CIC, CEO and founder of Work at Home Vintage Experts. "Bob's background and understanding of the SaaS process are a huge asset to WAHVE and Brainwahve."

"WAHVE and Brainwahve collectively have taken away the angst that is a part of the conventional recruit-hire-fire process and, in so doing, have eliminated the emotion-based decision making that plagues it," says Bob. "Brainwahve delivers more than just software-as-a-service; it's Expertise-as-a-Service. When you can eliminate those unpleasant and grossly inefficient aspects of the traditional hiring process and let the business focus on what the business logically needs, the business can thrive."

Bob holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration and Management from Northern Illinois University. He lives and works in suburban Chicago, Illinois. While at XDimensional, Bob was part of the effort to deliver the first SaaS solution for the insurance space, Nexcure.
