WORK AT HOME VINTAGE EXPERTS EXPANDS INTO CANADA, MATCHING PRETIRING/RETIRED WORKERS WITH EMPLOYER NEEDS

Las Vegas (March 1, 2022) – Work At Home Vintage Experts (WAHVE) is proud to announce the expansion of its business into Canada with the establishment of WAHVE Canada operations. WAHVE Canada was launched January 2022.

WAHVE USA has established a licensing agreement with the ECL Group of Companies, a strategic advisory firm offering recruitment services, executive search, managed HR services, and contingent workforce management. WAHVE Canada will operate under the ECL umbrella. Scott Stoppler, President & CEO of the ECL Group of Companies, has been named President of WAHVE Canada.

“Expanding into Canada gives our northern colleagues the ability to find the best talent for their organizations,” says Sharon Emek, Ph.D., CIC, Founder and CEO of WAHVE USA. “For us, ECL was a perfect fit. Their track record of successful recruiting within the insurance industry makes them a natural fit with the WAHVE business model.”

Since its inception in 2010, WAHVE USA has helped countless organizations fill talent gaps with highly qualified pre-retiring or recently retired insurance professionals, engaging them in work-from-home positions. Thousands of satisfied clients and talented workers have been matched through our proprietary Brainwahve cloud-based talent matching and qualifying software. Now, employers and veteran workers in Canada will have access to the same results through WAHVE Canada.

“Employers across Canada will now have access to a highly qualified talent pool that has previously been either overlooked or not available in their location,” says Scott Stoppler, President of WAHVE Canada. “Contract workers now too have the opportunity to utilize their skill set and step into a new stage of their career in a way that fits their lifestyle.”

The expansion of WAHVE services and business into Canada gives employers the ability to solve their staffing shortages in a way not previously available. In today’s tight labor market, WAHVE removes geographical borders and gives employers a hiring advantage by expanding their talent search across the entire country.

“We are pleased to be able to further enhance our relationship with our Canadian insurance colleagues,” says Emek. “Our goal is to transform how businesses fill their talent gaps. By engaging highly skilled, knowledgeable insurance industry professionals in work-at-home positions, WAHVE has reinvented what retirement looks like, and how businesses hire. We look forward to serving the insurance industry in Canada and helping retiring and retired insurance professionals reimagine their next career.”
